Discipling Youth:
Using the Ordinary for the Extraordinary

April 17-18, 2015

Janesville, WI

What is youth discipleship?

What goal is the church focused on for its young people, and how do we pursue it? Are all methods and means created equal? Join us as we consider how God would have us as parents, pastors, elders, and fellow members contribute to the spiritual growth of our youth.

About Our Speaker

Dale Van Dyke is a native of West Michigan, graduate of Westminster Seminary California and has been the pastor of Harvest OPC in Grand Rapids, Michigan since May, 1995. He has been married to his lovely wife, Joanne, for 27 years, has four grown (and married) children and is the proud grandfather of 6. He has taught a Wednesday night High School Theology Class for the past 10 years and has a passion to see God's young people grow in spiritual maturity. He is currently serving on the Boards of Westminster Seminary in California and Covenant College in Lookout Mountain, Georgia, and the Home Missions Committee of the Orthodox Presbyterian Church.
