

James 1:2-12 - Faith Under Trial

1. What various trials you have faced over the past year?
2. What is God's purpose in our trials?
3. What should be our response to trials? Is this realistic?
4. Where exactly can joy be found in the midst of trials?
5. What is a common "lack" that James highlights?
6. How are wisdom and perseverance connected?
7. God is singular in his purposes. Why are we so double-minded in our prayers?
8. What final illustration/application is here offered?
9. What if wisdom is simply seeing things as they truly are. What do you think about that?
