

James 1:12-18 - Faith That Endures

1. What “theology” do these verses teach?
2. Consider this distinction/definition:
Test = an external and adverse circumstance that is intended to increase maturity in the faithful
Temptation = an internal response to some test which initiates the process of sin in the un-faithful
3. What are some OT examples of a well-intentioned test that turned into an occasion for sin?
4. What is the process of sin that is here described?
D _____
D _____
D _____
D _____
5. In what subtle ways do we blame God for our sin?
6. What encouragements are here offered to us?

James 1:12-18 - Faith That Endures

1. What “theology” do these verses teach?
2. Consider this distinction/definition:
Test = an external and adverse circumstance that is intended to increase maturity in the faithful
Temptation = an internal response to some test which initiates the process of sin in the un-faithful
3. What are some OT examples of a well-intentioned test that turned into an occasion for sin?
4. What is the process of sin that is here described?
D _____
D _____
D _____
D _____
5. In what subtle ways do we blame God for our sin?
6. What encouragements are here offered to us?